

Café Golf @ Tynedale

- Learn to play golf with a professional
- Make friends in a group of like-minded beginners
- Experience the social side of golf in a welcoming, friendly and informal club
- Meet current lady members who will take you out to practise on the course
- Get exercise on a flat, parkland course on the banks of the Tyne in Hexham

... All this in Café Golf @ Tynedale

- 8 x 1 hour group lessons with Tynedale Professional, Martin Forster
- Temporary membership of the club, use of the full course and practice area on weekdays (except when competitions are being played)
- Group lessons with no more than 8 participants
- Support from lady members who will take you out on the course
- Special competitions and social activities for the group
- Free coffee / soft drink with each lesson
- Full use of clubhouse facilities
- No equipment required
- No previous experience or knowledge of golf required
- Starts beginning of May and continues until the end of September
- All this for just £100

Information about joining Café Golf @ Tynedale from Liz Hagger on 01434 633046 or welcome@2thecrofts.co.uk